I AM THE GOOD SHEPHERD:

- MY SHEEP HEAR MY VOICE . . .
Beloved pastor and apt administrator
- AND I KNOW THEM . . .
Sage Counsellor and an enthusiastic director of athletics
- AND THEY FOLLOW ME . . .
A real educator and true friend

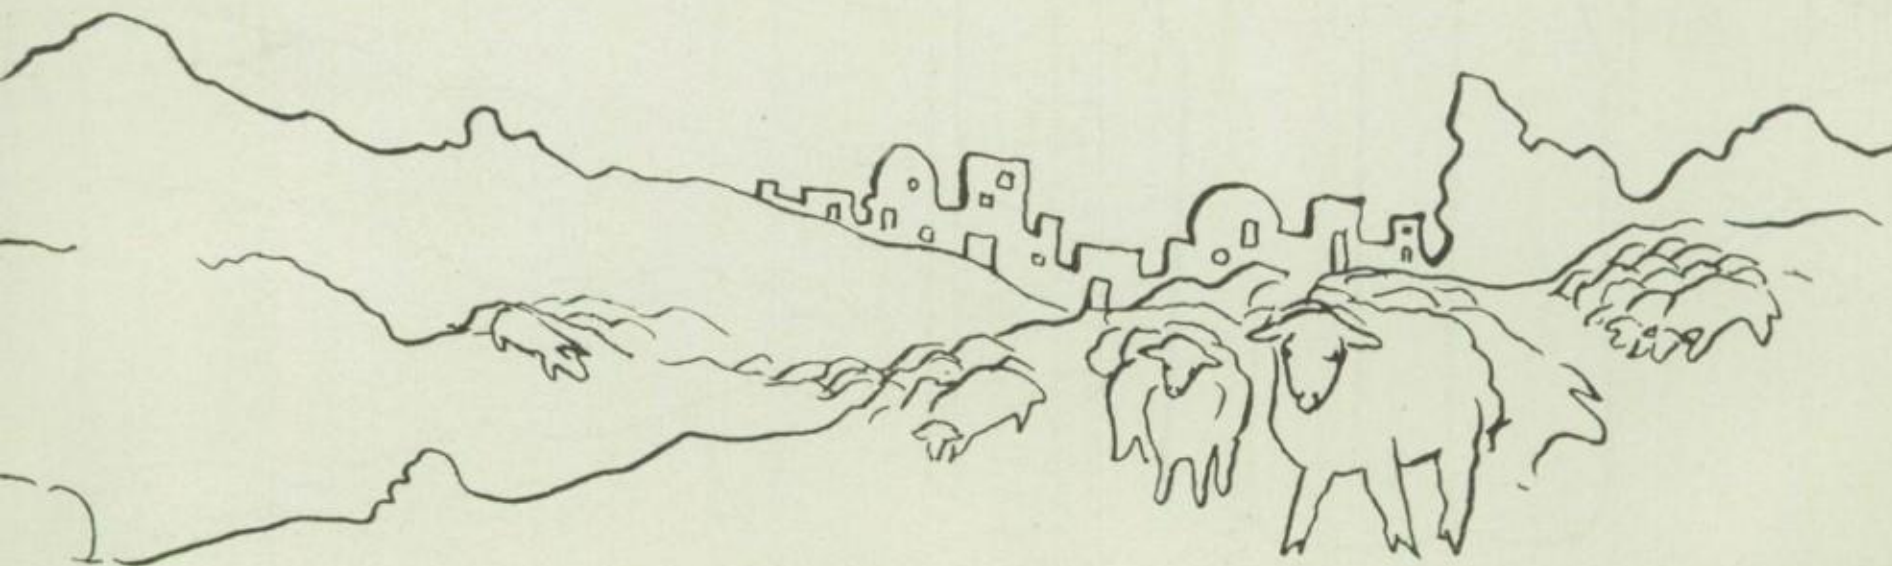

Foreword

THE SENIORS OF 1948

The making of this trail-blazing anniversary Carmion was in a double sense a labor of love: a picture of the fruits of the zeal and love of a "pastor bonus"—a good shepherd of his flock—and concrete proof of love and gratitude of the least ones in his fold who wish to contradict the old axiom: "A great man is seldom appreciated, until he is gone."

For us, seniors, THE CARMION will be a memory book full of pleasant reminders of sound Catholic principles to guide us safely to eternity, patient and loving training at the hands of the faculty, the high cultural standards afforded us through music, the lessons learned through victory and defeat in athletics, social contacts made and fine, noble friendships born of the genial and loyal spirit of Mount Carmel.

Because of all the forementioned blessings of an education in a Catholic school, we hope to live a fuller Catholic life, working, praying, and playing for Christ and bringing Him closer to all with whom we may be associated in our daily lives.

The Silver 1923

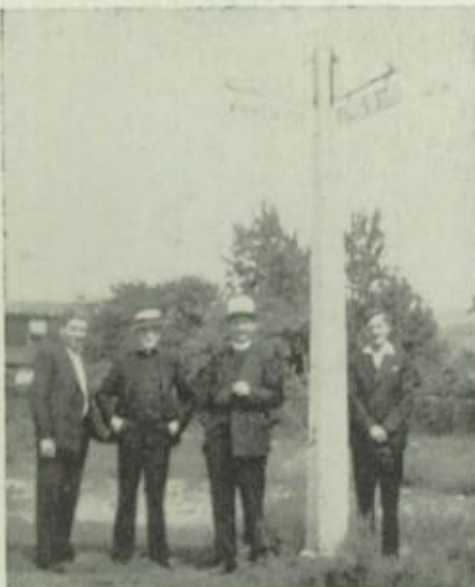

Rev. Ladislaus Krych was born March 7, 1899 in Detroit, Michigan. He received his elementary training at the Sweetest Heart of Mary parochial school and began his high school education at the Polish National Alliance High School in Cambridge Springs, Pennsylvania. However, the first semester of the sophomore year found him at St. Mary's, Orchard Lake, where he completed his high school, college and seminary training.

Not only was young Ladislaus at the head of his class, but also very active in extra-curricular projects on the campus. His work as administrator of various student organizations and as the secretary of the Detroit Club deserves special credit. The very fact that Rev. L. Krych during his theological studies was an instructor in Latin in the high school at Orchard Lake is proof of his high scholarly standing.

The youthful priest was ordained by the late Bishop M. J. Gallagher in SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral, Detroit, and celebrated his First Solemn Mass in the Sweetest Heart of Mary Church, March 4, 1923.

The bishop's appointment for the newly-ordained was a long teaching career at Orchard Lake, where Rev. Krych taught Latin, Polish and Ethics in the high school and college. Besides that he held the position of a high school disciplinarian for ten years with such an odd job as director of dramatics for the Detroit Club on the side.

When preparations were begun for the observance of the institution's Golden Jubilee, Rev.

L. Krych offered his services for the cause to accompany Rev. A. Cendrowski on an extensive campaign urging the alumni to participate in the jubilee ceremonies.

For a number of years Rev. Krych served as secretary of the Alumni Association and in 1938 succeeded Rev. W. Milinkiewicz as financial secretary of the Association.

Despite his many activities the genial priest devoted much of his time to the interests of the youth on the campus. It was there he discovered the depths of a boy's heart and developed excellent spiritual strategy which was to prove invaluable in his direction of youth in the future. Consequently, when St. Mary's needed an athletic director in the fall of 1938, Rev. Krych was the man to fill the post. Records show his work was highly commendable.

The excellent qualities of a real leader, enthusiasm, initiative, sympathy, influence and administrative talent drew the attention of then His Excellency, the Archbishop Mooney, who appointed him in Nov. 1938 to the post of director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in the Polish parishes of Detroit. The few months of labor for the Church's missions was curtailed by a new appointment as pastor of Mt. Carmel, in Wyandotte to succeed the late Rev. F. Kruszka.

The versatile young pastor of Mt. Carmel put to use his rare qualities of administrator and teacher and began to rebuild the parish from foundation up spiritually, economically and culturally.

IN THE COMMUNITY . . .

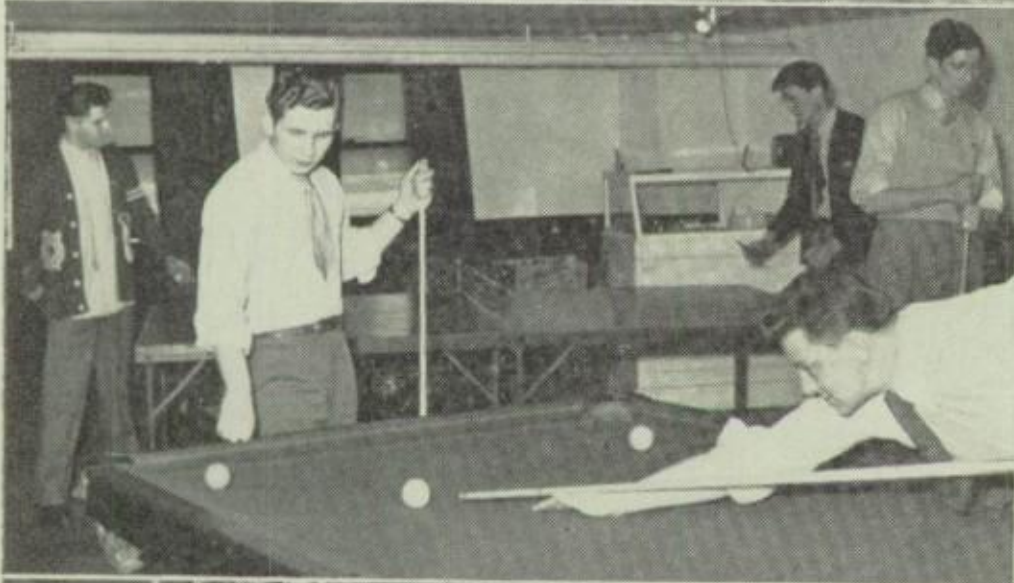

In no time people of Mt. Carmel and Wyandotte came to know the big heart of their new pastor. Polish circles and organizations felt his sincere support. The Polish refugee boys at Orchard Lake pulled on his very heartstrings and purse-strings as well. . . . Civic leaders found in Father an interested citizen with a determination to serve Wyandotte better by bettering his parish. . . . A special admiration for the "little ones" prevailed Father to keep the "big" boys "little" by filling idle hands with a ball, a bat, and oar, and idle minds with music and study. . . . As a true son of the Holy Mother Church, Father was always on the look-out for possible vocations to the priesthood and the religious life. . . . His boys in the service were always an object of his greatest concern and fervent prayers for their spiritual and material welfare.

Pictures—from top to bottom:

Father with his proteges, Polish refugee boys, at Orchard Lake. A familiar smile of a guest at social functions. Posing with some tots at the school excursion. Rev. T. Bozenski, Father's own boy, to be ordained in May, 1948. Anything Polish: projects, refugees or veterans are Father's specialty. Always nearest his heart and first in his prayers: his boys in the services.

1948 . . . Guiding Youth —

THROUGH ORGANIZATIONS

A leader is restless unless he can lead. That applies to Rev. K. Krych who would muster youth in social groups which would tend to develop them spiritually, morally and socially. . . . Two such organizations for spiritual growth fostered by the the Rev. Pastor are the Holy Name Society, junior section, and St. Theresa's Sodality, junior unit. . . . To fire the souls of the altar boys unto fervent service in God's Church, the St. Casimir Society was organized. . . . In the fall of 1947, John Cislo and other senior Varsity lettermen approached the Rev. Pastor about a clubroom for the athletes. Permission was granted with the only objective in mind: keep youth near the Church and off the streets.

A NOVENA OF YEARS

FOR THE SHEEP IN HIS FOLD . . .

It is almost impossible to enumerate the continual improvements that have been made by the pastor, Rev. L. A. Krych, through the nine years of his administration, to equip properly and beautify Mt. Carmel's Church. Some of the outstanding are: redecorating of the interior, new lights, new main altar, a grille in the baptistry, new confessionals, new Christman crib, chimes in the choir-loft, a shrine to O. L. of Perpetual Help, church towers re-enforced, P.A. system installed, Church exterior: stone re-enforced, brick painted and weather-proofed, central heating system: new boiler with a vacuum pump and stoker.

"... And I Know Them

... For School and

If Mt. Carmel's pastor is administrator par excellence, he is more so an educator, because of the rare qualities of a teacher. He understands fully the problems of the faculty and is quick and eager to solve them. He knows that efficient education means having an ample supply of tools to use with it. Rev. L. Krych in his untiring effort to raise the standards of his school, influenced parishioners and civic leaders and groups, and he, himself, strained his personal funds to give the students more and more by way of educational facilities. Here are a few outstanding costly projects of the past: a well-equipped, up-to-date library with hundreds of dollars worth of books added each year and subscriptions to 75 periodicals personally supervised by the pastor; principal's office, kindergarten chemistry laboratory, home economics department and mechanical drawing class fully equipped; new electric scoreboard and screens on the windows in the gym; new instruments and uniforms for the band; piano for glee club practice; new roofing and redecorating the school in and out and a new class in the annex.

As a solicitous supervisor, Father sees to it that the faculty is properly housed. To date, the Sister's home was redecorated, a porch built on to the back of the house and a new refrigerator and stove installed.

"I Am the Good Shepherd:

And They Follow Me ..."

REV. L. A. KRYCH
Pastor of Mt. Carmel

TO MY DEAR GRADUATES:

In this world all things come to an end and everything has a reason for its existence according to the plan of the Almighty. If to all creatures and heavenly bodies God appointed a purpose, then what should man say to this, the most perfect creature on earth, created unto the image and likeness of God. The purpose of man's earthly existence is clearly defined in the first question of the catechism. It constitutes the alpha and omega of his existence: "We exist in this world solely to know, to love and to serve God."

Towards the close of His mission on earth, Christ was surrounded by the hard-headed and hard-hearted people of Israel, with only a handful of faithful apostles apprehensive of their Master's end. When Jesus perceived the fear and sorrow on the faces of His disciples, He consoled them with those divine words: "Have faith, I have conquered the world." Your class motto, "Jesus, I trust in Thee", an answer to Christ's appeal to your faith, should be your constant thought all through your life, which more often than not is hard and burdensome.

You have also chosen Our Lady of Fatima as your class patroness. May she be the guide of your life. Have recourse to Her in all your trials. She, the help and the intercessor of the oppressed, will keep you and assist you.

Now you are completing, dear graduates, the first stage of your teen years. You are about to embrace wider horizons in the world according to the adage of the ancients: "In magnis voluisse." It shall be no more the task of acquiring the knowledge of various subjects under the direction of your teachers, but the difficult schooling of your character for the future the school of life.

Remember that man's life is one continuous battle upon earth. We must be good soldiers of Christ persevering to the end.

With the impressive words that "all things come to an end" in your mind, and with your motto on your lips, proceed then "upon the new walks of life."

May the Divine Saviour accompany you on life's journey as He did to Emmaus. Let Him always lead you by the plain and simple ways of life to that goal, for which He created you.

JESUS, I TRUST IN THEE

(To my senior class of '48)

When the pulse of life beats high
And joy's expressed in a sigh,
I trust in Thee.

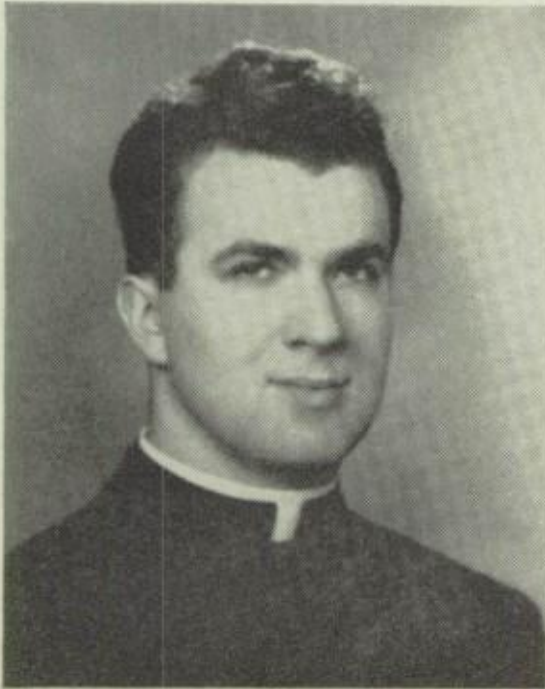

And if tried and true friends fail
Or as enemies prevail,
I trust in Thee.

Thou wilt avenge the wrong,
Make sorrow one sweet song;
I trust in Thee.

So come storm or sun today,
Success or failure chance my way;
Let this my prayer be:
Jesus, I trust in Thee!

BALLOONS, STREAMERS AND A ROVING SPOTLIGHT - THE FOUNDATION FOR A GALA EVENING! The flower-bedecked throne kept the dancing couples wondering who would be the lucky royal pair. During intermission at 10:00 p. m., Mr. Carlos Rivera drew by lot the names of Virginia Czarnik, Room 302, and Ray Hebda, Room 304, of the junior class.

The sophs modernized the frosh at the annual initiation. Blouses, pedal pushers, curls, ribbons and lipstick made the frosh boys look very feminine. The girls' ensemble consisted of long slips, short dresses, a hair-do composite of three different styles and clumsy galoshes on the feet.

The freshmen were ushered on the stage realistically set to resemble a funeral parlor with the chairmen of initiation acting as morticians. A real coffin stood in the center of the stage containing the remains of a frosh who refused to oblige in 1946. After the grand entrance, the obsequies began and were cheerfully performed by all the frosh. Quite a shiveringly memorable experience.

BOOKKEEPING—Sophomore lassies haven't any trouble in determining what is debit and credit. To become future kookkeepers they must be accurate, efficient and neat in all business undertakings.

BUSINESS—It is in the commercial class that the students are taught the fundamentals of business. Under the guidance of Sister Mary Clementine, they learn the importance of accuracy, reliability, and personality, which are essential in the everyday business world.

ETHICS—In order to have harmony among all people, students must learn the necessity of belief in God. To love God one must serve Him by serving others. Eager frosh are learning to live up to the ideal.

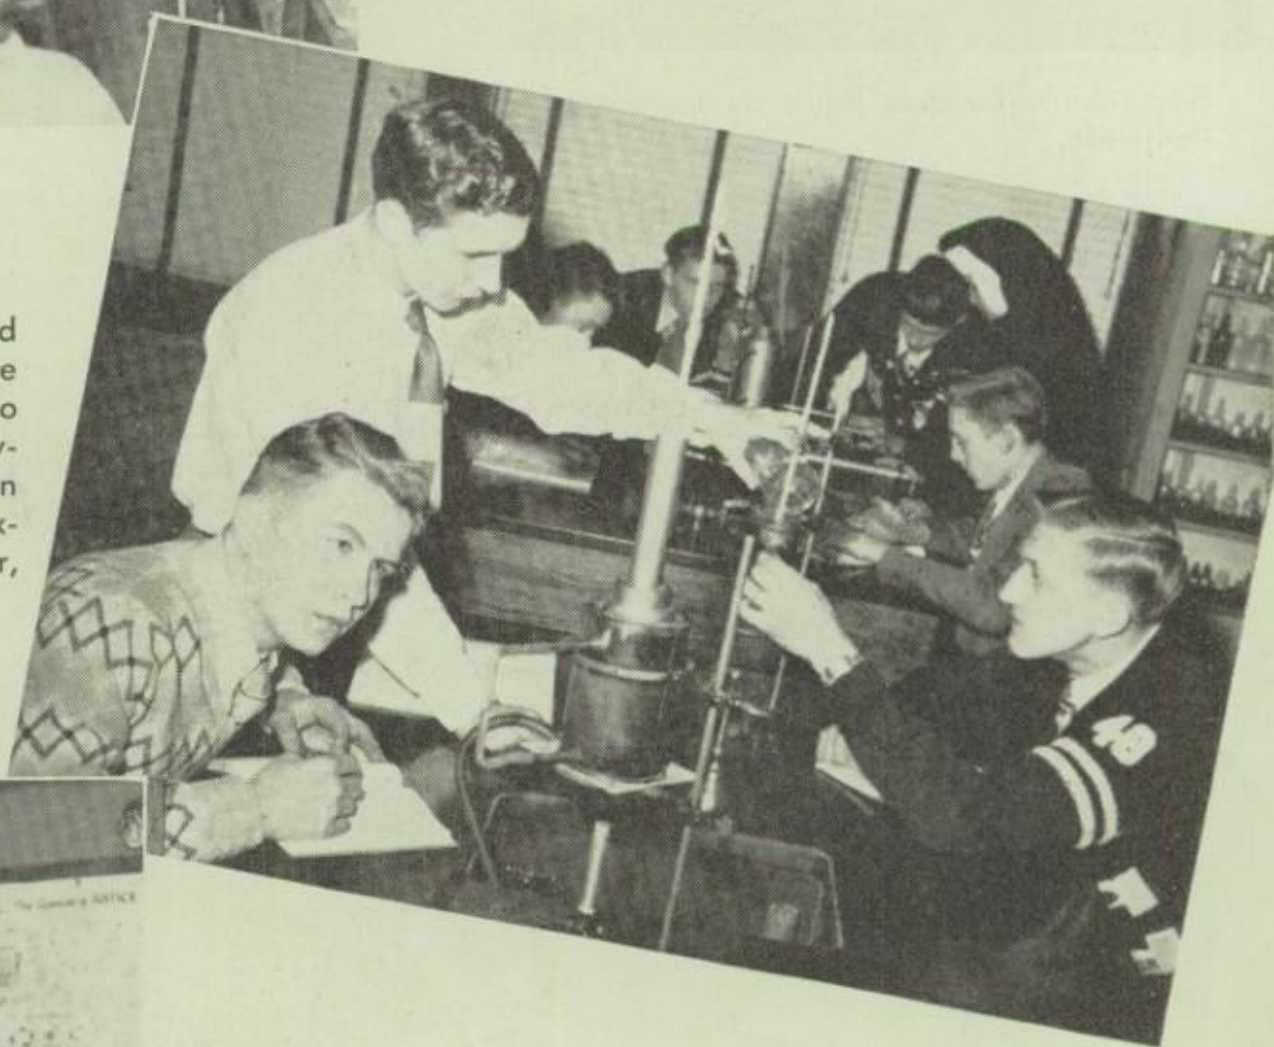

LIBRARY—The most treasured possession of M. C. Hi is its modern, up-to-date, well-equipped library. It has over 3,500 books and 75 periodicals which the students draw and read willingly. The attractive, pleasant, and peaceful atmosphere of the library is conducive to concentration and serious thinking.

Drafting - for MC Boys -

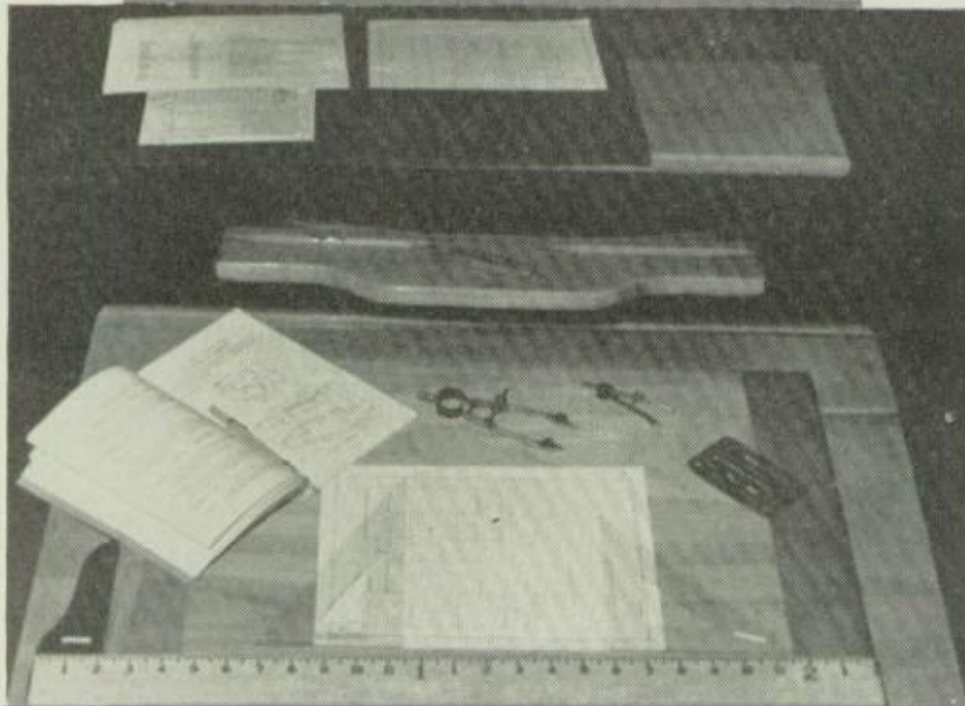

The growth of Mt. Carmel High is clearly visible in the wide range of sports and new subjects in the curriculum. One of these is mechanical drawing, or commonly called, drafting. "It is the language of the engineers, the architect and mechanic."

Drafting conveys the idea of the designer or engineer to the mechanic or builder. Some of the mechanical drawing divisions are: airplane, architectural, electrical, sheet metal, tool, topographical and machine drawing.

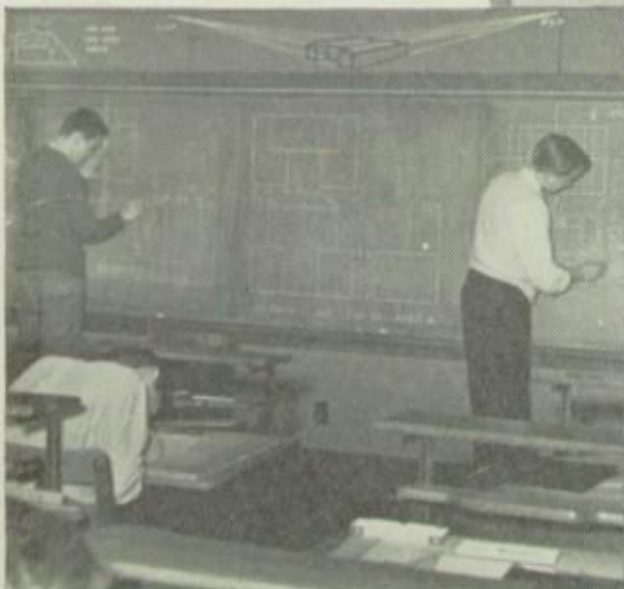

The drawing shows two views, front and side of a hollow tube.

Every piece of equipment is necessary for a precise drawing. The T-square, at the bottom of the picture, is one of the most essential tools of the draftsman.

THE MOTOR BEHIND THE HUM . . . The Principal

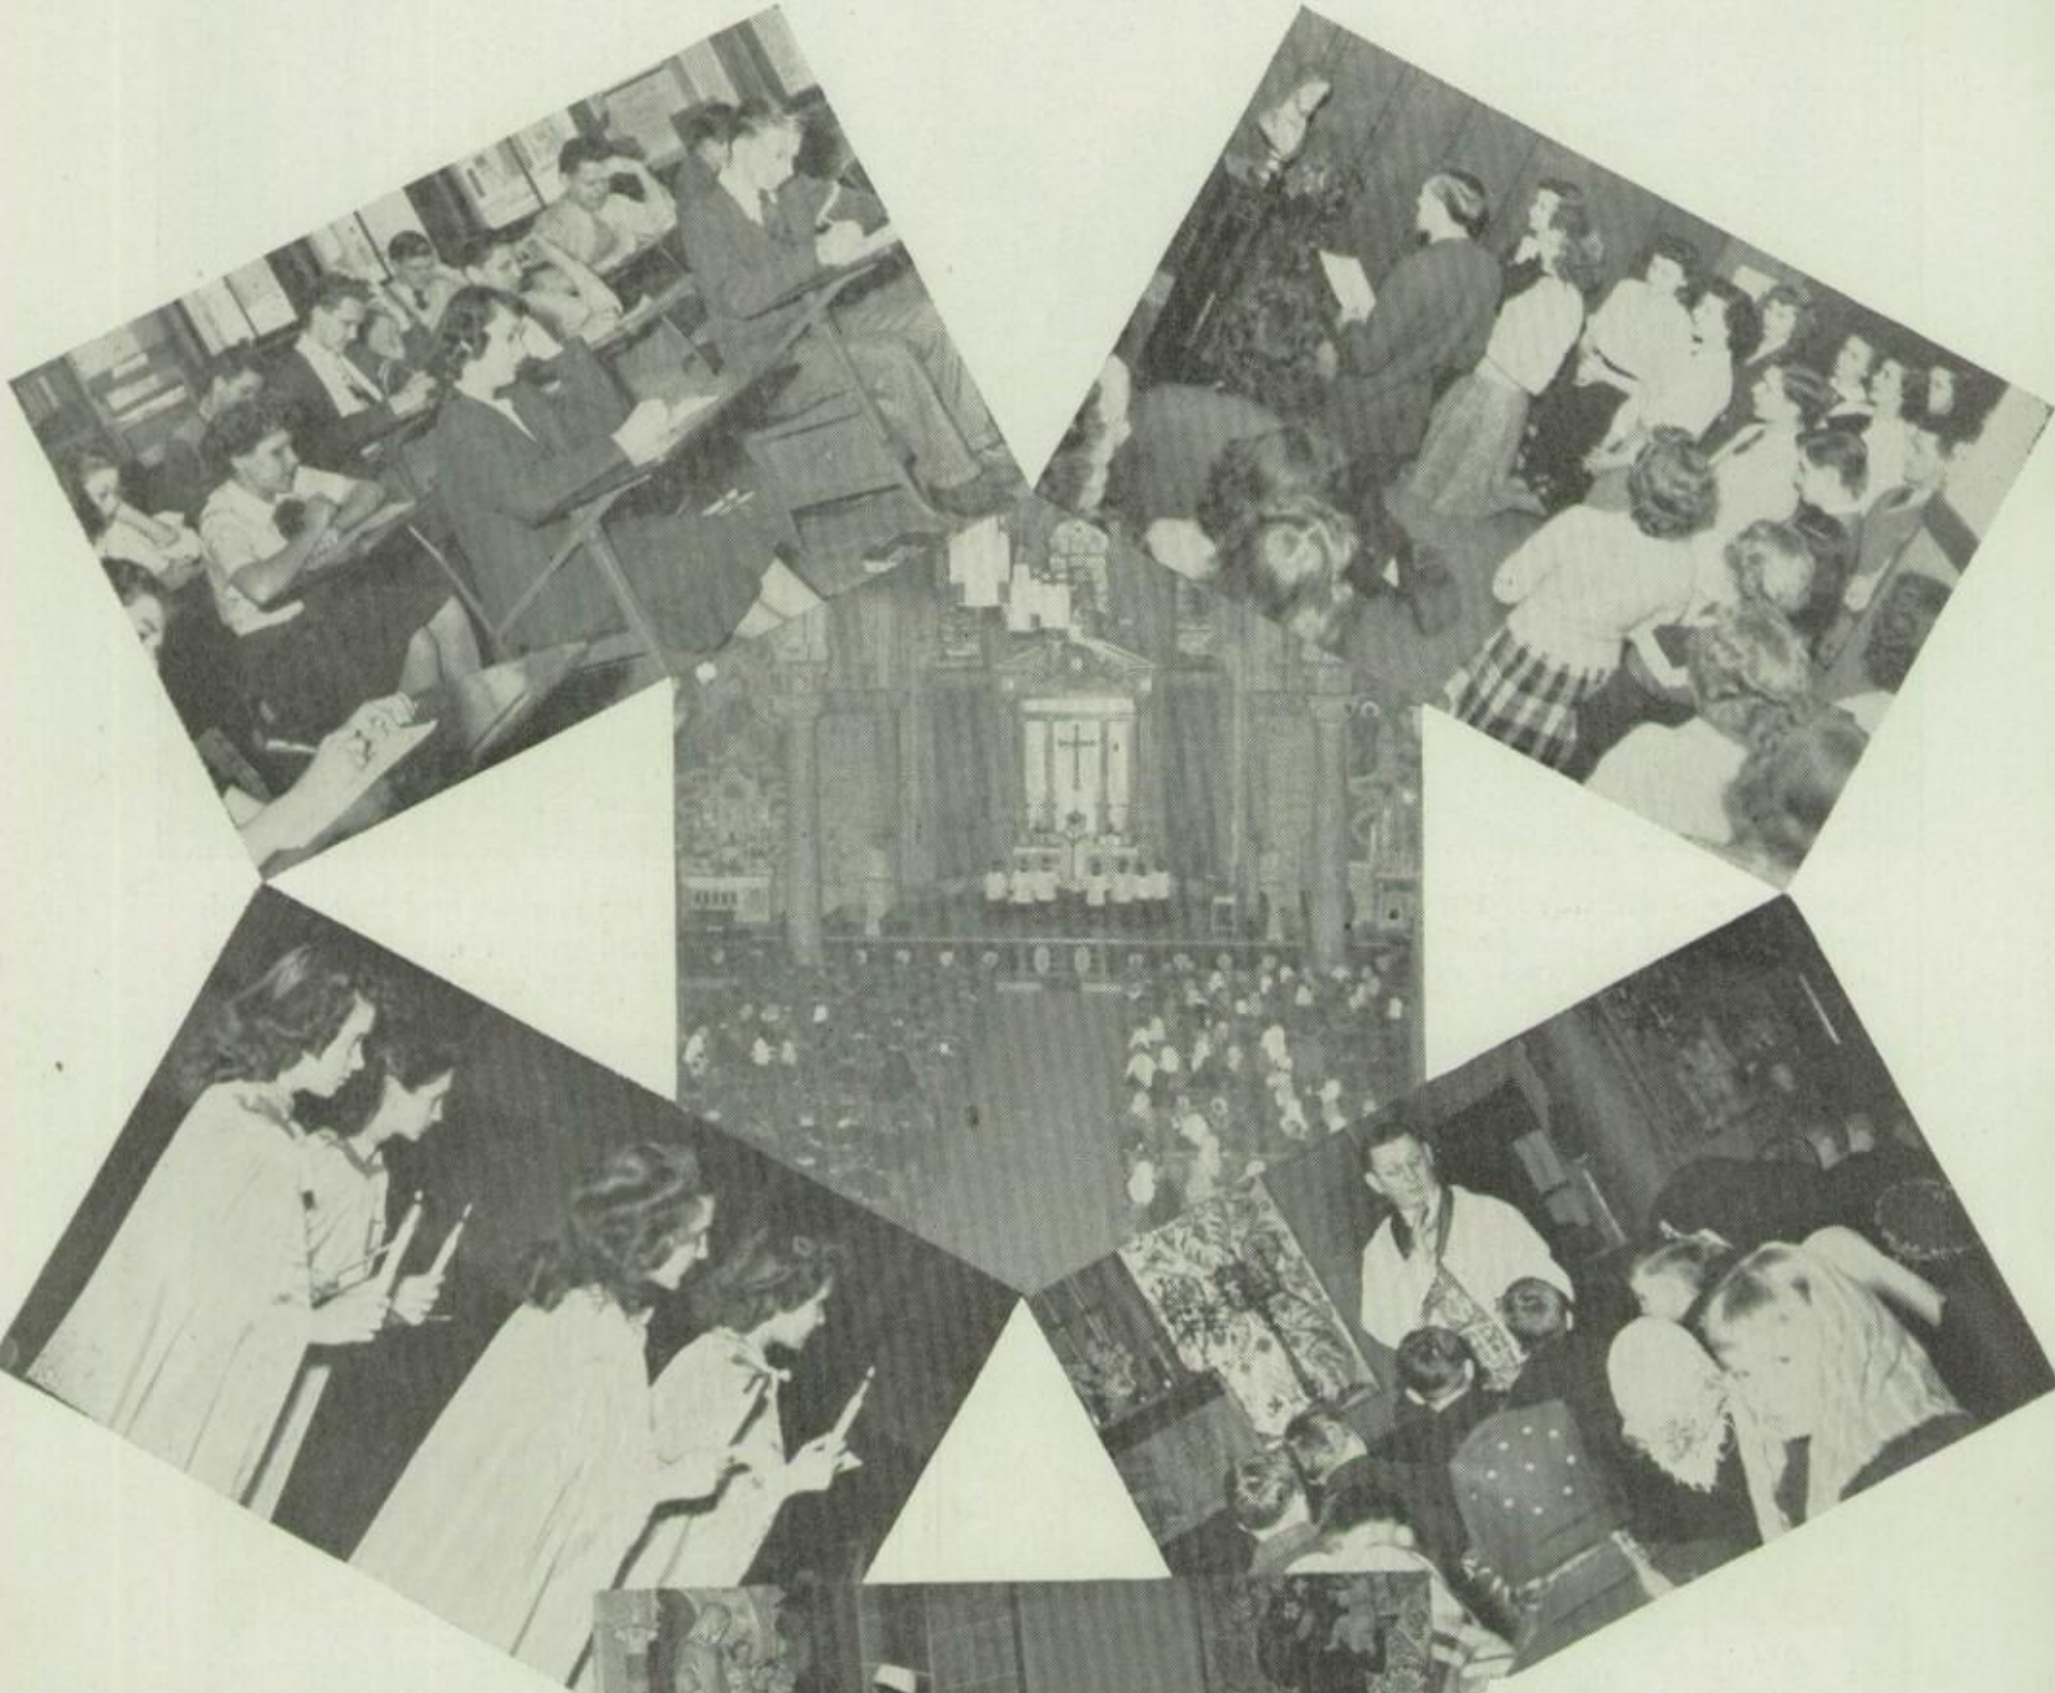

Sister Mary Dobroslava, the principal of Mt. Carmel the second year, enjoys the respect and love of both elementary and high school students, because of her understanding nature and genial informality. We will miss visiting her office for the solution of our problems and assuaging the pains of growing up.

Mt. Carmel School had the honor of being the first school in the Down River Area to receive the Safety Merit Pennant, an award presented to schools with a minimum number of traffic accidents. Mt. Carmel school has not had an accident for the past nine years, thanks to the efficient work of the safety squad. The mayor of Wyandotte, Louis Brohl, presents the pennant to the pastor, Rev. L. A. Krych, for the school's commendable safety record, as the proud safeties and student body looks on.

Annual Operettas on Parade...

HATS OFF!

Our hats really do go off to the young lassies of the lantern dance in "Hats Off" of 1945: Ann Sieratowicz, Rose Mary Ulewicz, Mary Jane Wroblewski, and Marcella Kapsa. The dance was one of the most picturesque scenes in the operetta.

During four years of existence, the glee club has been steadily increasing in number. Last year's enrollment of fifty looks feeble along side of this year's record enrollment of eighty-nine.

Three operettas have been the major accomplishments of the glee club thus far, with a fourth light opera, "The Student Prince", well on the way.

THE OAK CLUB

In the spring of 1945, Rev. Ladislaus Krych, pastor of Mt. Carmel was toying with the idea of introducing football in the fall of the same year at Mt. Carmel high school. As usually happens in the parochial school system, the main obstacle was finances. Rev. L. Krych approached Mr. Thomas Watkowski with the idea of getting some men together to raise funds for football equipment. Six young men, namely, Robert Bednarek, Alex Uszynski, John Jacobs, Henry Stec, Frank Wszelaki and Thomas Watkowski formed a committee and sponsored a dance on September 22, 1945, netting a profit of $930 which was presented to the Athletic Fund of Mt. Carmel high school.

Encouraged by their first success, the committee increased its membership by nine young men—Anthony Siemion, Peter Jablonski, Bertram Lange, Leonard Kowaleski, Albert Hebda, Roman Watkowski, Walter Przytula, Steve Tar and Len Stoh—and laid plans to sponsor another success and $500 was donated toward the purchase of a rowing shell and $600 towards the purchase of instruments for the Mt. Carmel band.

Enthusiasm, close cooperation and friendly relationships inspired the first fifteen men to form a club. Thus the present Oak Club was founded on December 9, 1945, with the sole aim of furthering athletics through funds procured by means of various social activities. The first officers of the Oak Club were: Mr. Frank Wszelaki, president; Mr. Anthony Siemion, vice-president, Mr. Thomas Watkowski, treasurer.

The present officers of the Oak Club are Mr. Albert Hebda, president; Mr. Alex Uszynski, vice-president; Mr. Bertram Lange, secretary; Mr. Thomas Watkowski, treasurer.

To date the following donations have been made by the club since its organization:

C.Y.O. Eighth Grade Basketball
Uniforms	$ 70.50
Music Fund for band uniforms	2,000.00
Rowing Crew Shirts	25.92
Baseball Uniforms cleaned	23.50
Football team photographs	15.00
Athletic Fund	2,500.00
Bus to transport team to games	30.00

This year the Oak Club is conducting a membership drive to increase its number to thirty in order to expand its work for the athletics of Mt. Carmel.

THE USHER CLUB

The Ushers were already an organized group before 1939 under the direction of Rev. B. Parzych, then the administrator of Mt. Carmel. With the beginning of his pastorate Rev. L. A. Krych did not interfere with the rapidly growing group which by 1940 had already adopted a constitution and drew up a charter for an official Ushers Club to be of special assistance to the pastor and the parish at large.

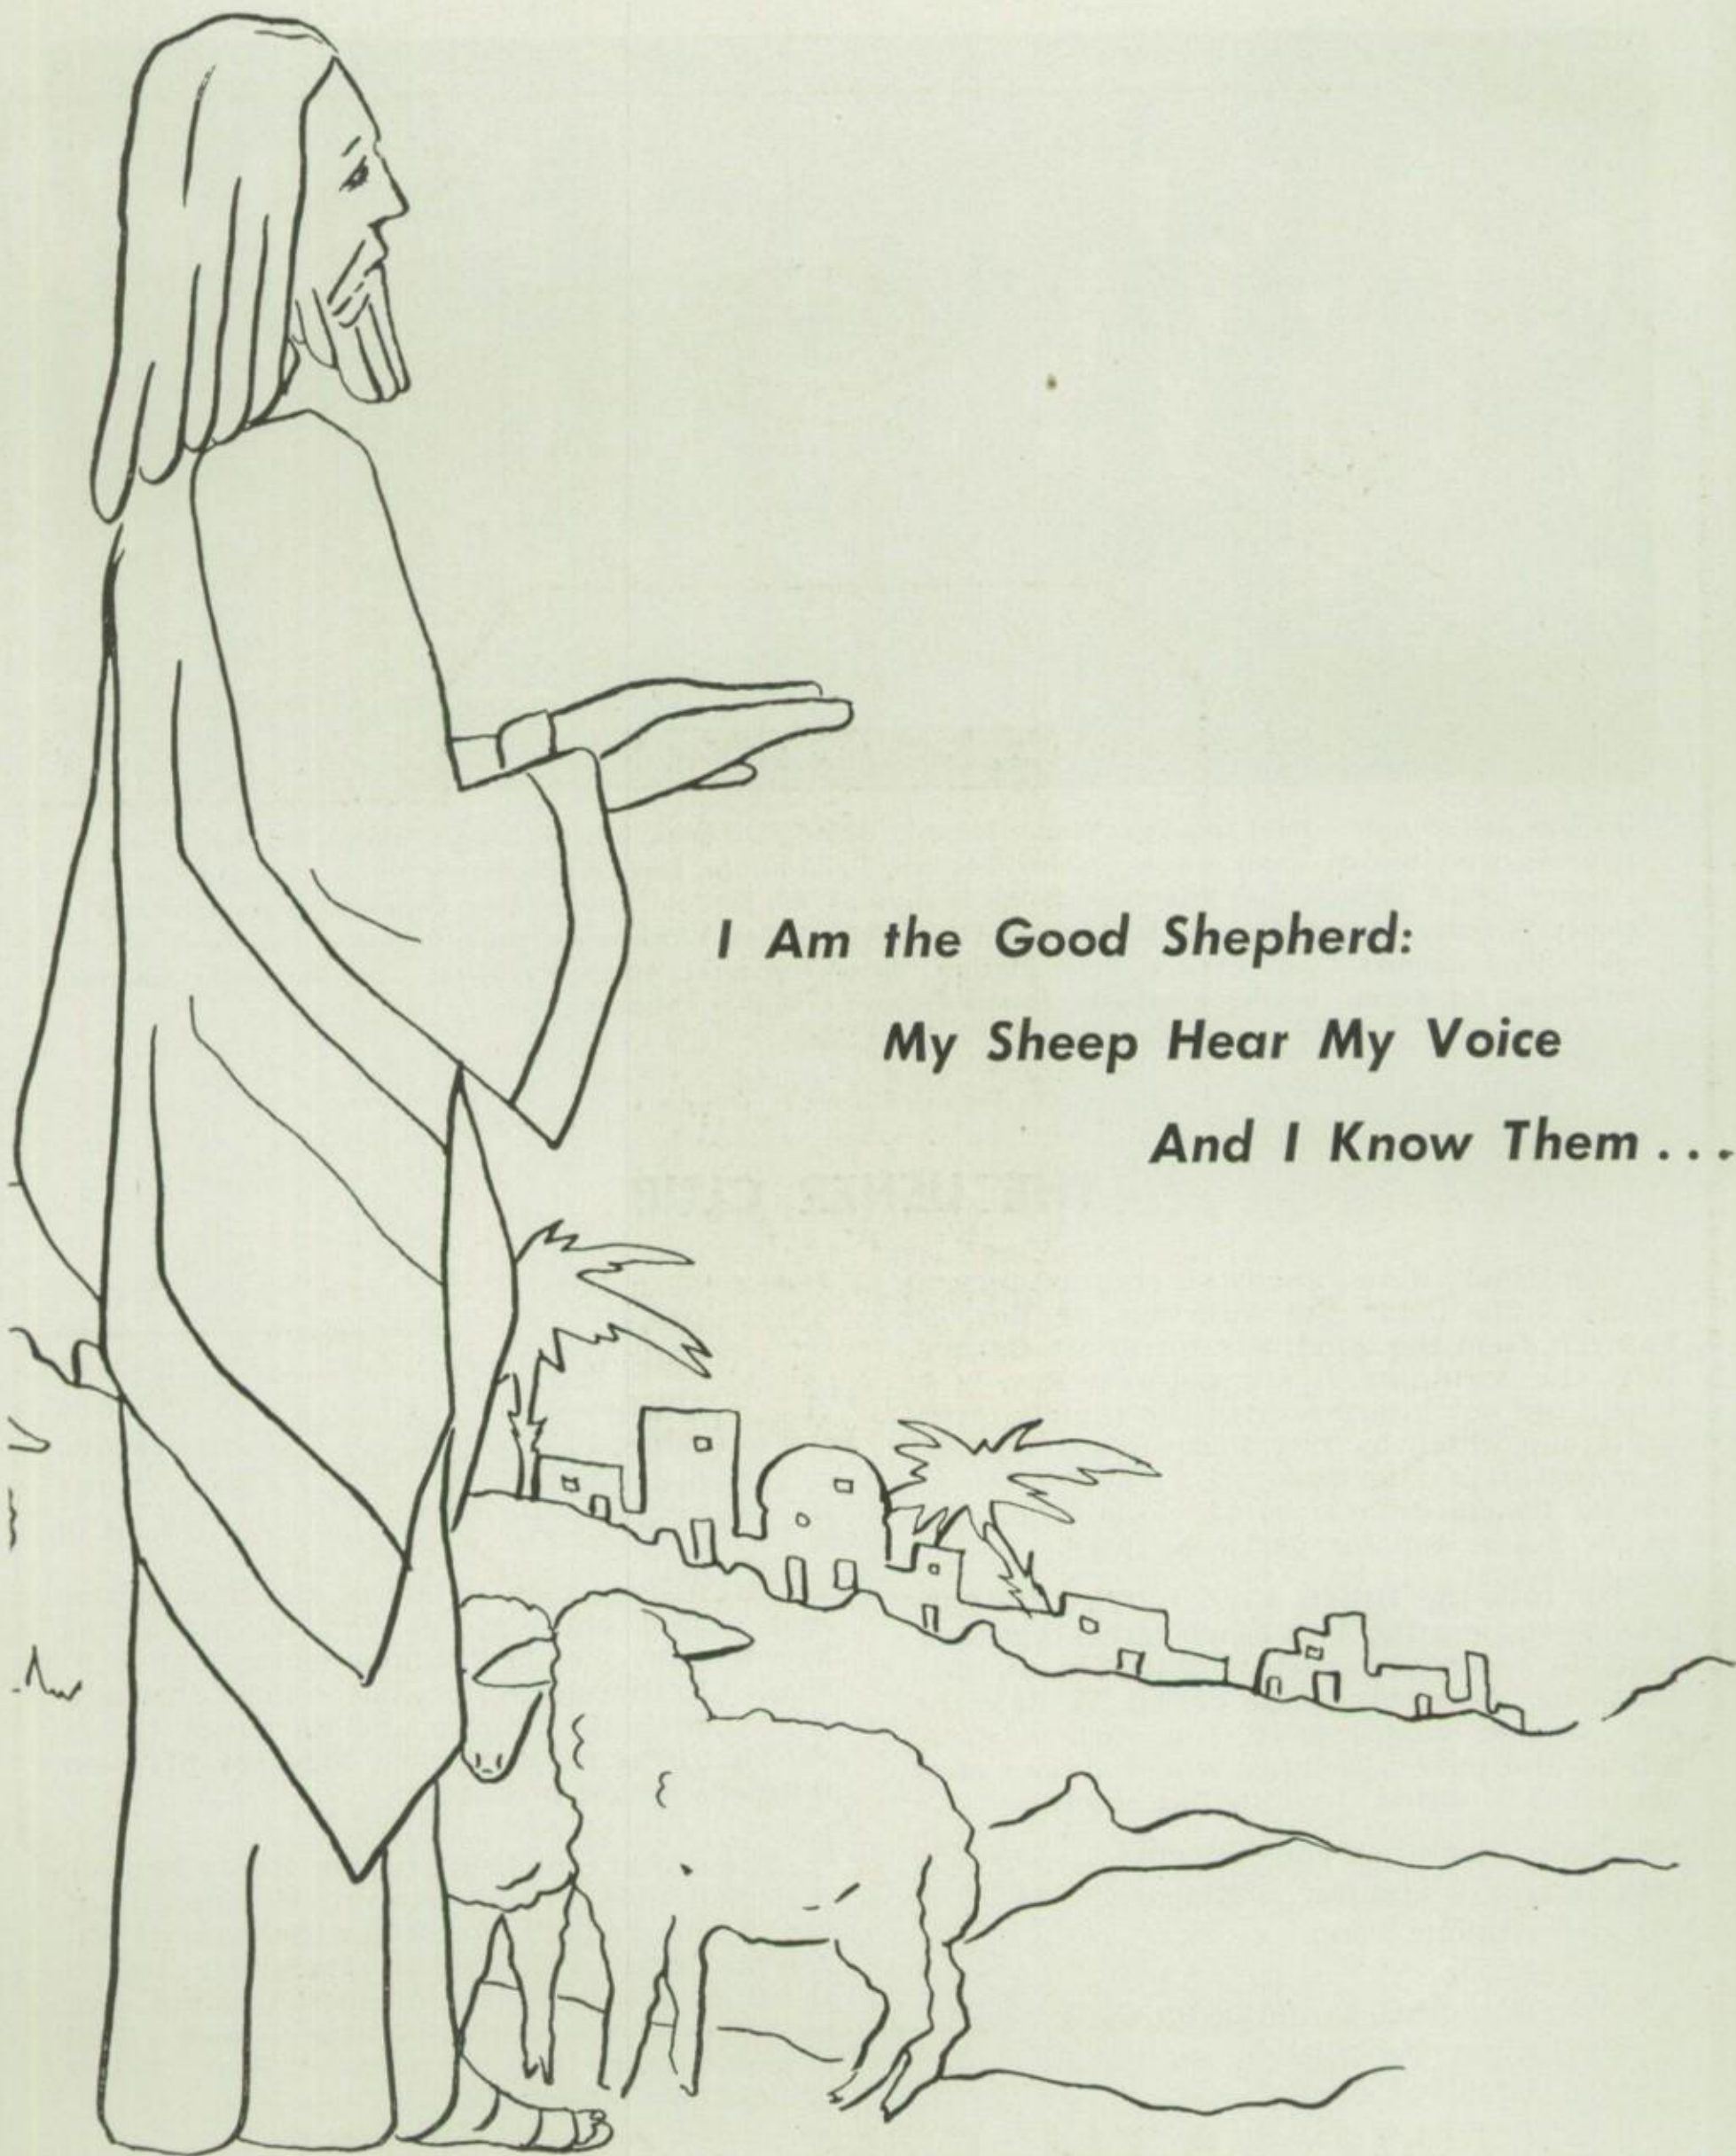

Till 1946 the Ushers Club fulfilled its purpose by cooperating with other parish organizations in sponsoring various activities to raise funds for the needs of the parish. To date the club worked independently on various social affairs and gave assistance where it was most needed as is obvious from its fine record:

1945—New Rectory Fund—Bingos	$2,852.50
1946—March 2 and Dec. 5 Bingos	$4,750.40

The Ushers club is one of the most active and largest clubs at Mt. Carmel numbering seventy-two members whose motto is P-E-P: Plans, Enthusiasm, Personal follow through! United with the Church and its pastor it has shown by far greater power than seventy men normally would produce.

The officers for 1948 are: Mr. Henry Belaski, president; Mr. Frank Baronn, vice-president; Mr. Louis Paciani, recording secretary; Mr. Joseph Boggis, Financial secretary; Mr. Joseph Urbanek, Treasurer; Mr. Adelbert Urbanek, Sgt. at Arms; Membership Committee: Messrs. BASE

Comets took to baseball in 1942 when they played in the city recreation league. They took top awards by downing all opposition. Although they made a fine showing, baseball was discontinued the following season. After a three-year lapse, in 1945, again the Comets took to the diamonds and under the late Father Wyzykowski won one of their four games.

The next season found Joe Piatek at the helm of a team that captured the West Side title. On June 6, they met St. Florian at Briggs Stadium and almost turned in the greatest upset of the season when a seventh inning rally fell short of the mark. The final score read, St. Florian 3, Mt. Carmel 1. With this game they closed the season.

In 1947 the Comets set out to retain their title, but as the season got under way it was evident that they lost the spark that sent them forth the previous year. After the final tally was taken, the Comets were found in second place.

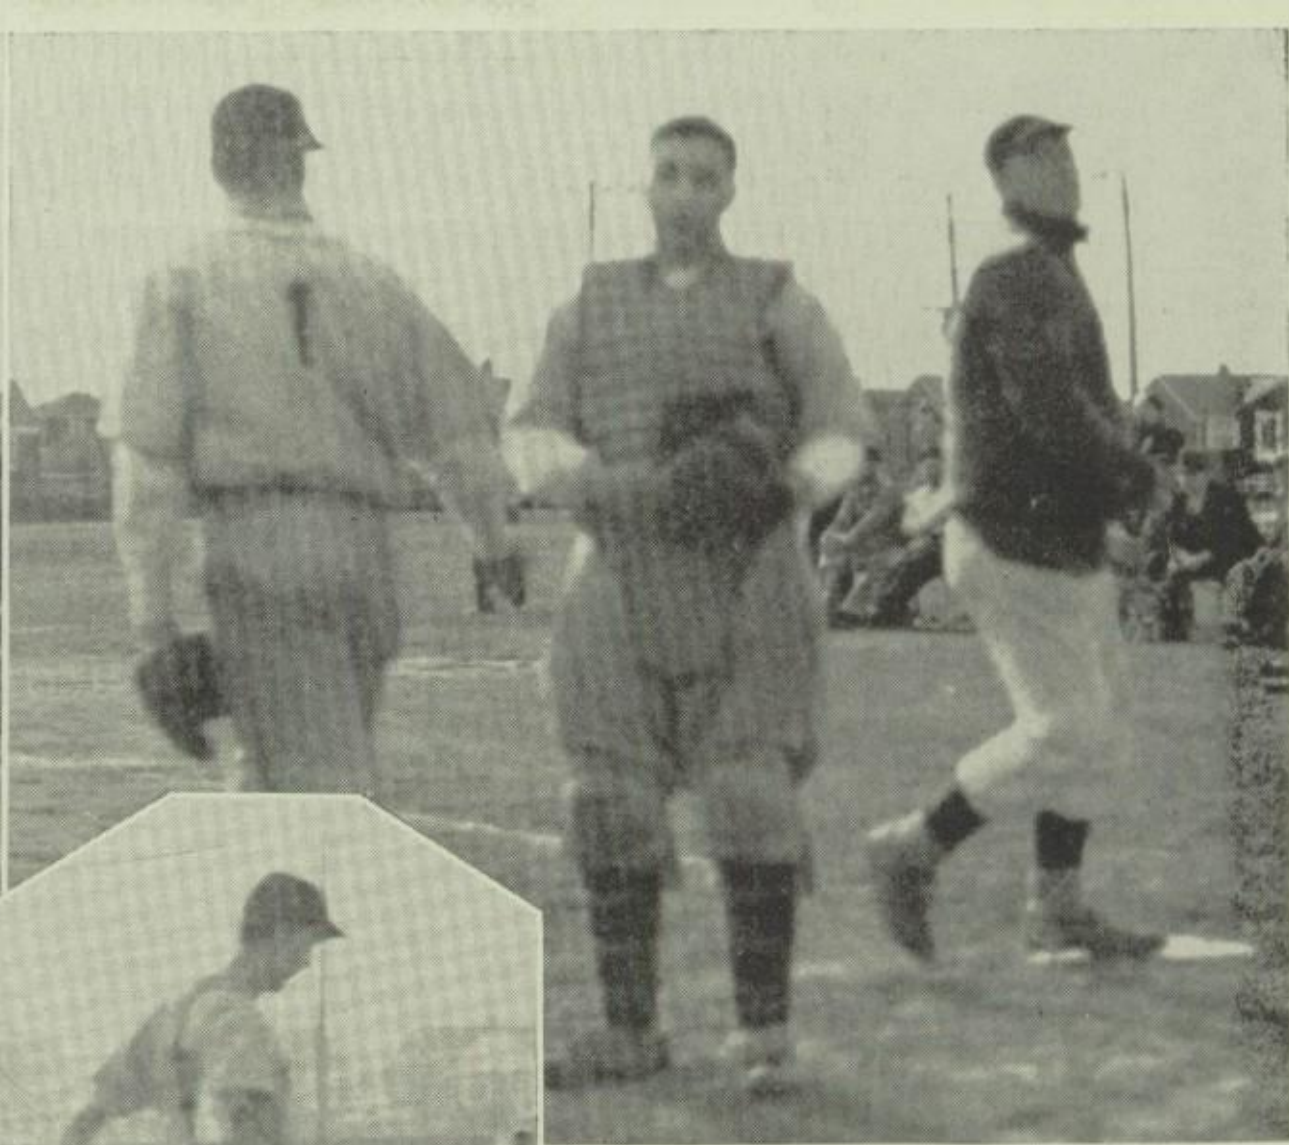

• The above trophy was awarded to M.C. High for being runners-up in the Third Division finals.

• Waving the willow is Irvin "Midge" Tuszynski, supplied much of the needed power at the plate to bring in the first championship.

Team

Standing:

L. Flocharczyk, R. Bednarek, C. Dylewski, Coach Piatek, L. Lenart, B. Rzepa, E. Arminiak, B. Wachowiak. Seated: J. Stefaniak, H. Solo, Rev. L. Krych, C. Zuleski, W. Kulik, and P. Czarnecki.

In 1939, the Mount Carmel Basketball squad was renamed the COMETS. Under coach E. Szydowski they finished two seasons. Fronczak was named on the All City team in '39.

Later Joe Piatek was procured for this assignment. He coached one championship team before enlisting in the Marines in 1942. Leaving before the title game with St. Josaphats, the former coach ended the season.

Bob Bednarek took the leadership of the team in the seasons extending from 1942-46. In these years he led them into two divisional and one district championships.

Under coach Bednarek the following were All City selections: Stefaniak and Rzeppa, 1942-44, Gurzenda, 1944-45. Spiegel, 1945-46.

Returning from the service, Joe Piatek was signed again to pilot the Comets who finished the 1946-47 season in second place. Andrew Podsiad was All City selection.

The last team to gain the 3rd Division title was in 1944—

Top row: H. Fronczak, R. Janas, S. Kur, R. Grupczynski, E. Bielawski, R. Urbanek, S. Lesczynski. Bottom row: Coach Bob Bednarek, A. Gambicki, E. Barcikowski, H. Krolikowski, W. Lybik, E. Gurzenda, and Rev. L. Krych.

THE RESERVES

These lads of the Reserves are the potential stars of the future Varsity. They are a determined squad, ready to shoulder the brunt of next season's games. Their present achievement is a memorable one, having gained 14 victories in 15 starts. Having trounced St. Andrews the Comet's Reserves became the West Side 3rd Division Reserve Champs, being the first team to gain this title.

Another season has ended, leaving the Comets of the court tied for third place, with a .642 average, having won 9 and lost 5 games. After giving St. Casimir's a trouncing by the score of 52-33, a bright and successful season was expected ahead. From then on, however, the team's efficient functioning machine seemed to slow down with only occasional glimpses of spirit showing in them.

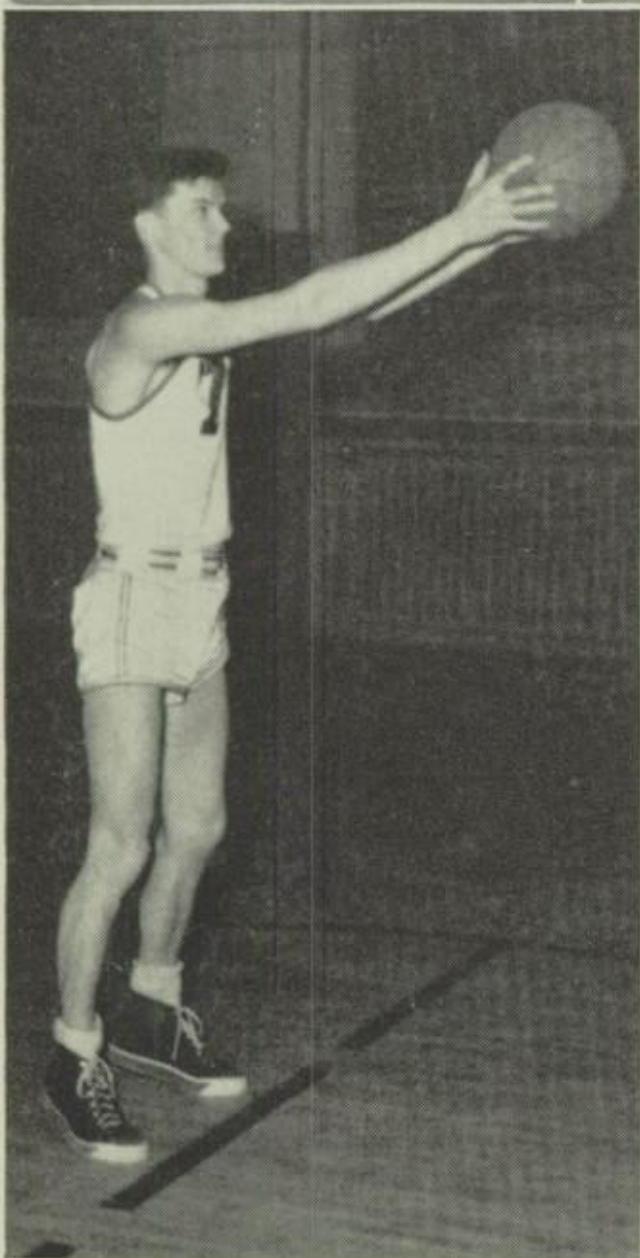

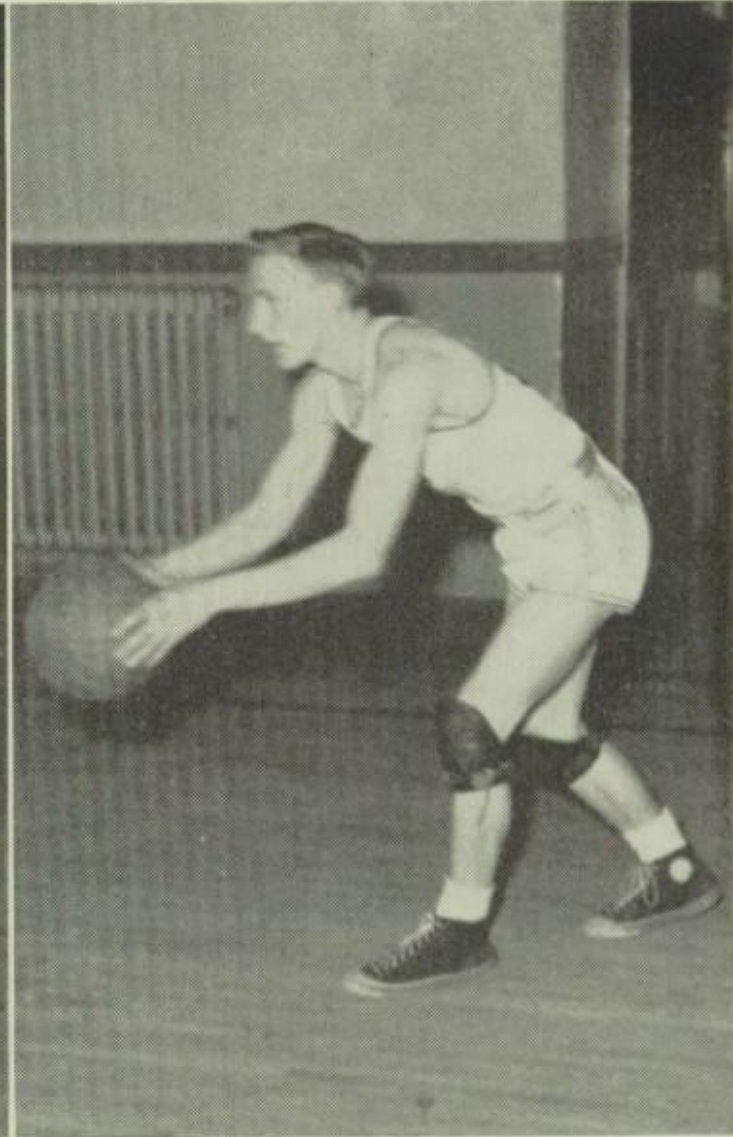

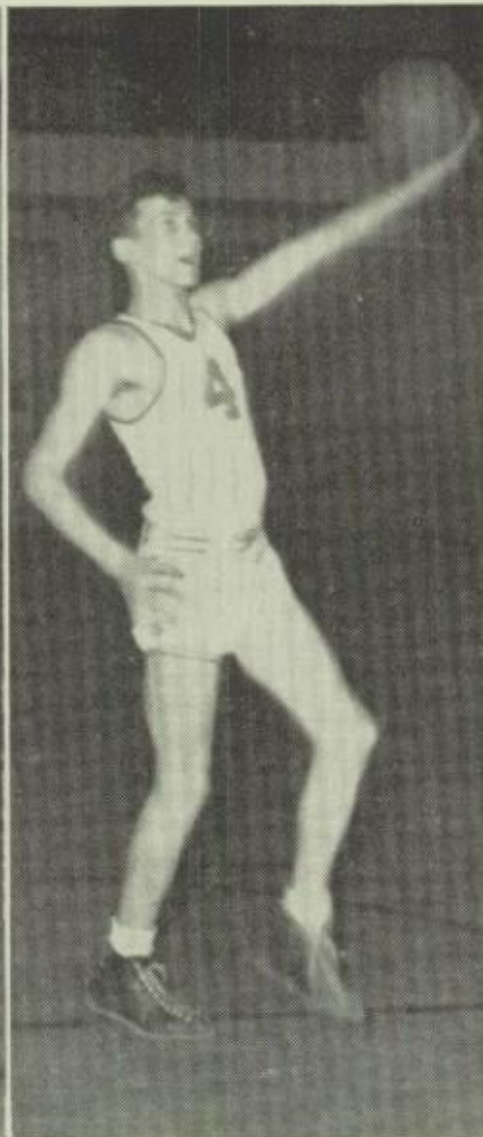

When they lost their second tussle, the boys lost a bit of their self-confidence. After this only infrequent flashes of early season form, which fanned a spark of hope, was shown. Though the Comets wound up in third place, they provided the fans with many thrills. The boys played with all the heart and spirit they could muster.

Tuszyński, D. Kowalski, R. Burtka, R. Perkowski.

Football was introduced into Mount Carmel in '45. The initial game was played on Sunday, September 30. That year the Comets were under the supervision of Roman Watkowski and Capt. Henry Łojewski. Although they won only one of seven grid battles, they showed great promise. Edward Paraszak was named on the All City squad.

During this season the Knights of Columbus donated a trophy which goes to the victor of the annual Mt. Carmel —St. Patrick game.

In the season of '46 Father Krych engaged Joe Piatek as head coach and Roman Watkowski as his assistant. The Comets finished the season tied for third place by winning 5 and losing 2. That year Al Hebda and Andy Podsiad were named All City.

A majority of returning letter winners were on hand, when the Comets began practice for their third season of league play under the direction of Coach Piatek and B. Zamenski.

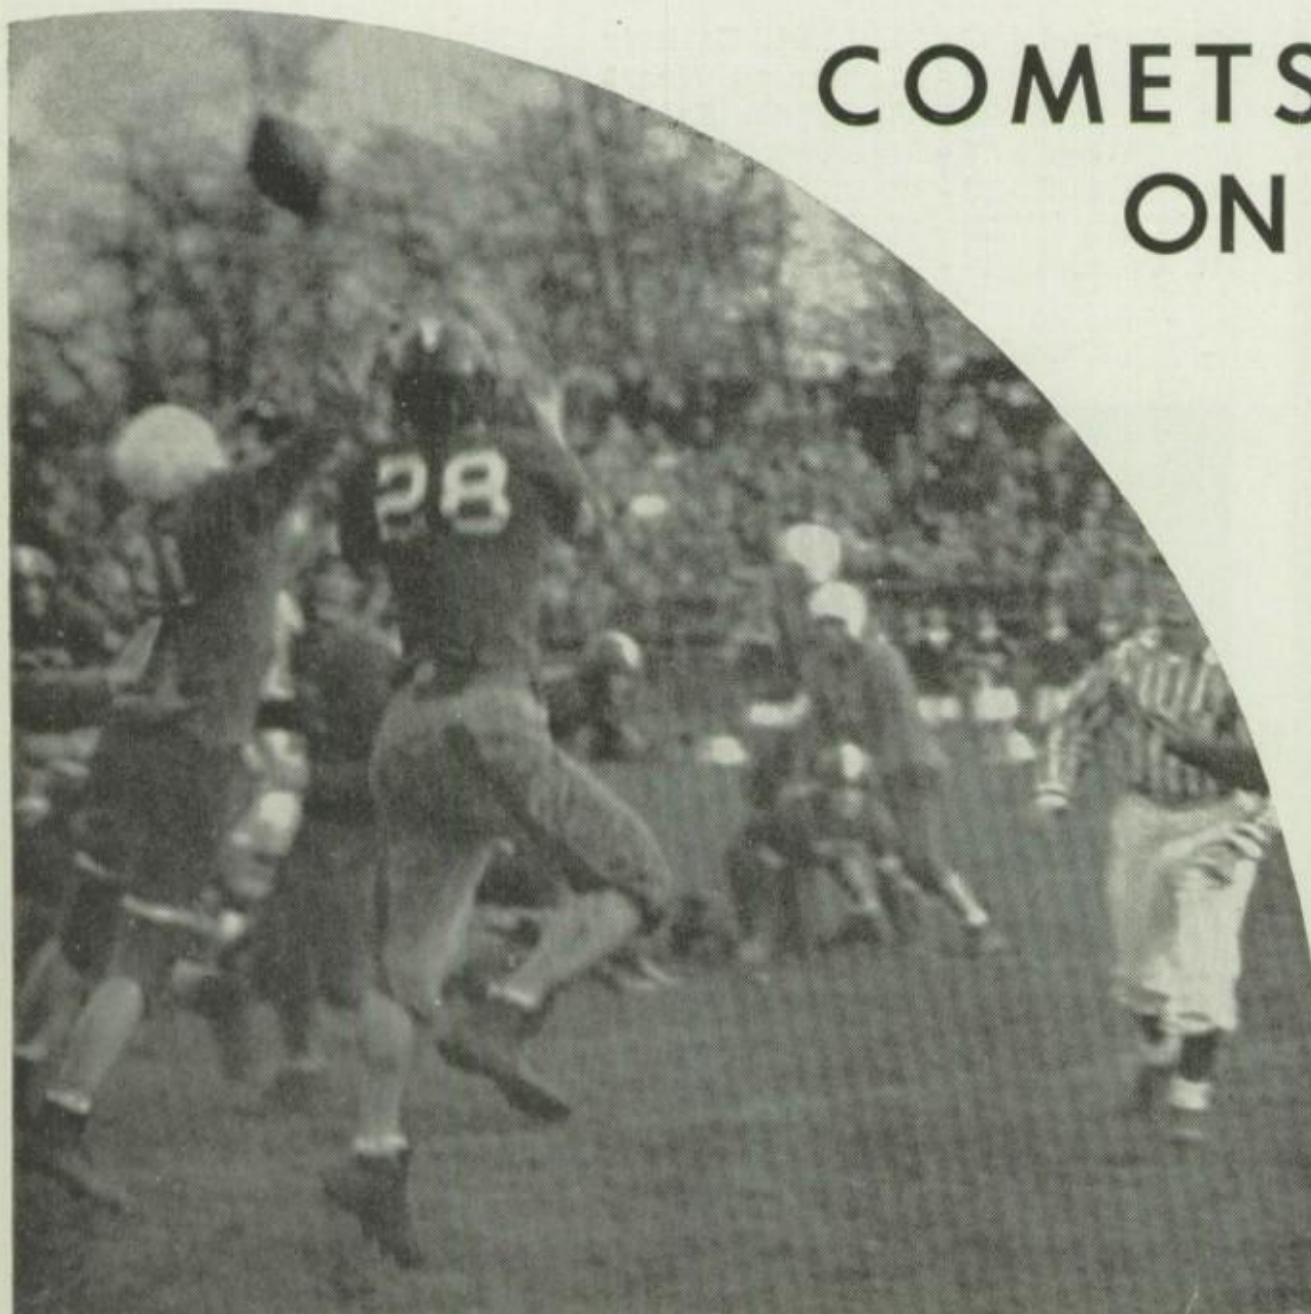

A month later the first league game was played, which ended in a scoreless tie with Sacred Heart of Dearborn. Following this contest there were two victories before the Comets were dropped by St. Pat's for the third straight year in the battle for the K. of C. trophy. A layoff of one week followed, allowing time for the hurt Comets to lick their wounds. The remaining composition seemed to be no match for the Mt. Carmel as they rolled over all opponents finishing the season with possession of second place.

Without a spectacular back these future men of Mount Carmel were able to win consistently through the aggressiveness of their seven mules.

Andy Podsiad and John Dylewski were the only players to win All City honors from the Comet squad.

Andy Podsiad was chosen as the most valuable player for the '47 season, receiving a trophy donated by Oak Pharmacy.

COMETS ON

Ted Olszewski (28) Comet end, going high for the ball.

Wes Beadling of St. Pat's breaking away from Andy Podsiad for a notable gain. In the background John Dylewski and Hank Elden of Mt. Carmel.

Men Who Spark M.C.:

Andy Podsiad, Sr., three years of football - sparked team last year to successful season - this year's squad captain - voted all city end - cool thinker - good leader.

Ted Olszewski, Sr., three years of football - exceptionally good pass receiver - dependable punter - averaged thirty-five yards last year - jokester on field.

Don Kowalski, Sr., three years a tackle and center, good defensive player - has hobby of weight-lifting, one of the organizers of Varsity Club.

John Cislo, Sr., worked himself up from sub to a regular - barring serious injuries - should play regularly - one of the organizers of Varsity Club.

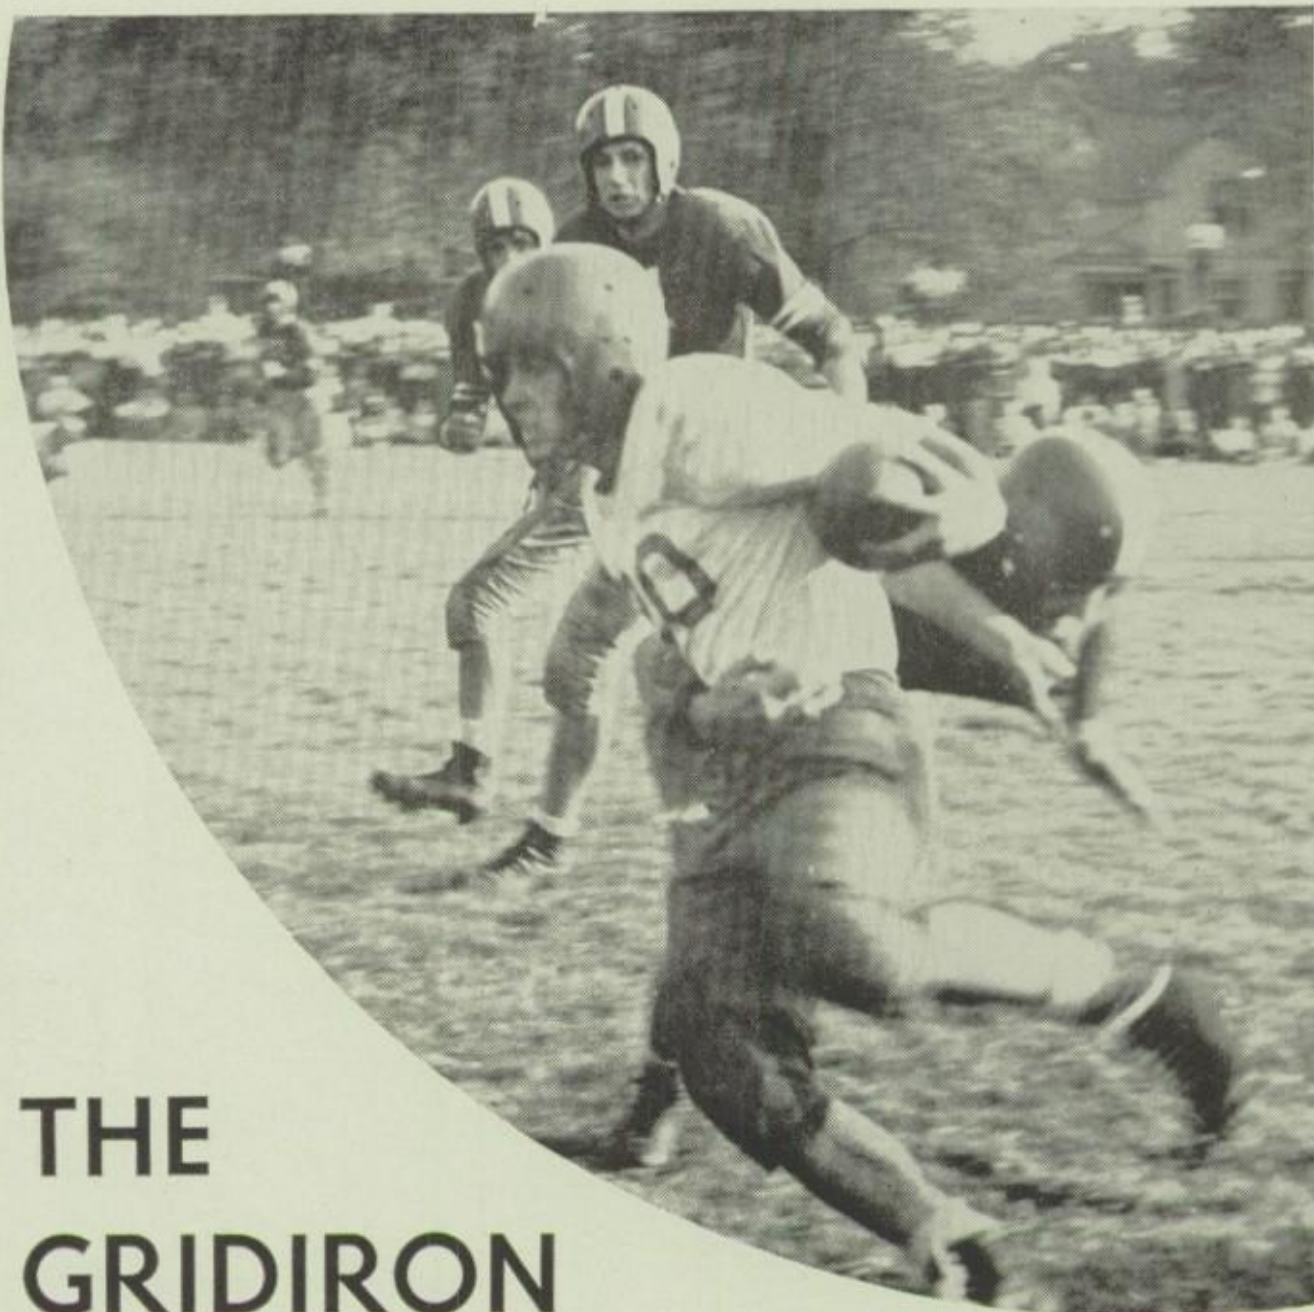

Gerry Wojtkowiak, Sr., played since his soph. year - good defensive and offensive guard - important mainstay on team - said to have strong mind, will, weak back.

Frank Kulikowski, Sr., played three years - first year at quarter-back - key man on all plays - first passer - man of few words - one purpose: victory.

Irvin Tuszyński, Sr., guard who was switched to backfield because of speed - southpaw passer.

Hank Elden, Sr., defensive tackle - specializes in place kicking - first year as letter winner in football - heaviest man on team.

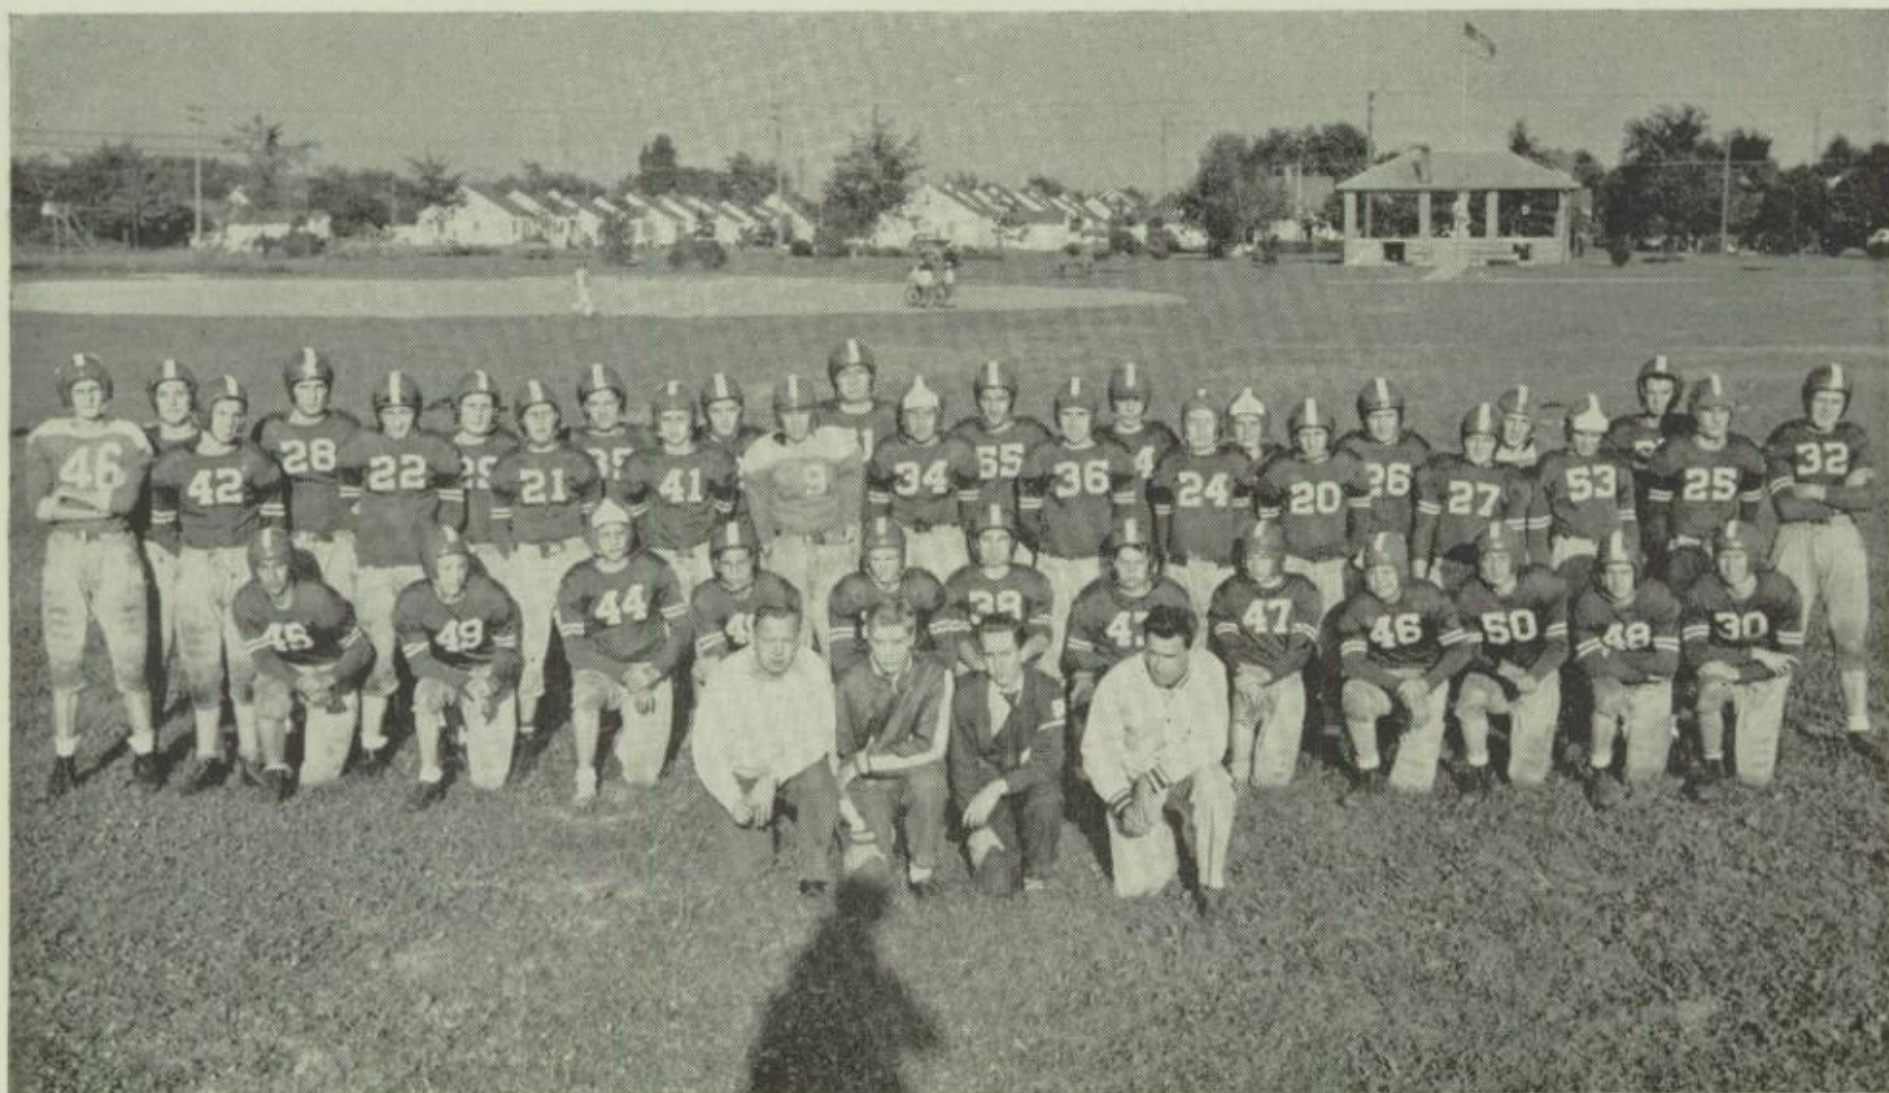

Ralph, Sr., played with team late in season - fast and sure footed half-back.

NATIONAL

In '44, with a borrowed four and the hope of establishing a new era in Mt. Carmel Hi's Athletic program, a trailblazing crew began practice with no established coach. They were: Frank Dardzinski, Jerome Biniasz, Ed Klapec, and Stan Bylinski.

This four doubled in '45. That year the crew was coached by Ed Kalisiewicz, who was to become coach for three more years. Although no outstanding meets were won, that eight was the first Catholic High School Crew in the State of Michigan.

With '46 came the first victory in three years. June 8 was the historical date. Later, they went on to become the Midwest Champions by winning four of their seven races. On May 24, '47, Mt. Carmel entered a four in the National Scholastic Rowing Regatta held at Wyandotte and by winning that, they became the National Schoolboy Champs.

What Now?

1948 Rowing

As yet the future is not known. Because of losses caused by graduation, the new team will be built on the foundation of the remaining scullers. Through the generosity of the various Alumni clubs, Mt. Carmel now possesses an eight and have an order for a four. We are confident that the future crews will staunchly try their whole-hearted best to gain more renown for Mt. Carmel by diligently following the example of previous crews.

48 — ONWARD

Due credit should be given to the Comettes managers, namely, Anna Mae Witczak, and Evelyn Czerniakowski, for their outstanding work throughout the whole season. Things were in place before a game and after it, because the student basketball managers knew how to serve well. They were always on hand to see that transportation was provided for members of the team. Credit is also due to our publicity manager, Helen Kolakowski, who made it possible for the Alumni to read about the girls' games.

• Girls' Basketball was introduced in '45 under the leadership of Mrs. C. Focht. Having entered the CYO, the Comettes finished in 2nd place, dropping two decisions. Although they were not victors in all their games, the girls managed to earn the respect of all, for their ability, spirit of sportsmanship and a promise of future success.

• Mrs. Cecilia Focht, the splendid coach of the Comettes, earned a hearty thank you extended to her by the team. Under her guidance, the sextette emerged bigger and stronger than ever.

In '46 Comettes captured the Divisional Championship of the West Side.

The 1948 CYO grade school team is on the verge of repeating their performance of last season. This team won six out of eight games. Their only losses coming from the hands of Lourdes and St. Pat's.

The St. Pats tussle was a sparkling thriller. Three overtime periods were used, with Mt. Carmel losing the game when an opponent sank a basket in the fatal "sudden death" period. Not only are they a consistent team, but a very good defensive and offensive unit, one that plays hard at all times whether ahead or behind.

Main springs are:

Dick "Chuck" Dziendziel—guard - only 8th grader on team - averages 10 points a game.

Ed Kroll—guard - helps "Chuck" control team.

Matt Zajchowski—forward - alert at all times - likes shots from corner.

Bill Stewart—good ball handler - forward - fair shot from 10 sec. line.

Ed Urbanek—center - controls the back-board - tallest man on team - has one more year.

Sports Banquet

The banquet was under the sponsorship of the Mt. Carmel Usher club and the speaking portion of the program was carried on the air over station WJJW as a public service feature.

The Wyandotte Chemicals orchestra, under the direction of Jack Downing, played appropriate music during the dinner hour, and the Wyandotte Chemicals Barber Shop Quartet, with Jack Shingleton leading, furnished close harmony in old tunes that the packed auditorium applauded vigorously. The versatile Shingleton, always ready to oblige, was prevailed upon to give his very dramatic reading of the time honored favorite "Casey at the Bat" and the crowd went wild in showing their appreciation.

Howard Solo, chairman of the party turned the program over to Co-Chairman Charles Watkowski, who in turn introduced the master of ceremonies for the evening, Sam Madden, director of the athletics and physical education for the Detroit Archdiocese. Madden took over at the point when the program was put on the air and continued at the helm until the conclusion of the speeches and presentation of the Oak Pharmacy trophy.

The Oak Pharmacy trophy for the most valuable Mt. Carmel football player was awarded to Andy Podsiad, a standout performer at his end position on the Comet Squad.

Father Krych, in his talk, had nothing but praise for the manner in which Mt. Carmel athletes have soared to the top in the few short years the school has competed in inter-school athletics.

Michigan State's freshman football coach, Bob Flora, was the main speaker of the evening, according to the program, and made a hit with the crowd when he made his talk short and snappy. However, he further solidified his position at the conclusion of the evening by showing moving pictures of the MSC-Washington State football game.

The City of Wyandotte extends hearty congratulations to Rev. Ladislaus Krych on the happy occasion of his Silver Jubilee of ordination to the priesthood and best wishes for many, many more years of distinguished service to Our Lady of Mount Carmel parish and community at large.

Heartiest Congratulations

GOD BLESS YOUR SILVER JUBILEE

*Joyous are the greetings
That go forth to you this day,
When the Silver Milestone
Marks your consecrated way.
May each hour of service
Which the years will yet unfold,
Richer be with blessings
While the Silver turns to Gold.*

Thank You!

We wish to express our hearty thanks and sincere appreciation to all our friends and business patrons who have so generously supported our project of the year.

Special credit is due to Mr. John Zdunczyk for being the sole support and help to his brother and our staff photographer, "Babe" Zdunczyk, '49, and to Zeno Bozenski, Carmonte's staff artist, for the cover and music illustrations.
